

Bury St Edmunds Human Chain of Hope

in support of the U.N. International Day of Peace, and PeaceOneDay

Sunday 24th September 2017
12:15 pm – 12:45 pm

Come and be a link in the chain

The aim is to “join” the two town war memorials to make the “Chain of Hope”, signified by holding the blue ribbon.

All you have to do is wait and join in anywhere on the route, indicated by the stewards.

The event will start at A at 12:15 and the ribbon will begin its journey from A at 12:25 with the aim to get to C as quickly as possible. Our beautiful banner will be at B.

As the ribbon unwinds past you, take hold of it and try not to let go!
